WELCOME TO OUR 53RD FESTIVAL!

It is with great excitement and joy that I present to you Festival Mozaic's 2024 San Luis Obispo Summer Music Festival. As we gather once again to celebrate the beauty and power of music, we embark on a journey of discovery, inspiration, and connection.

Throughout history, music has been a universal language that transcends boundaries and unites us in harmony. At this year's festival, we embrace this timeless tradition as we explore a diverse repertoire spanning centuries and genres.

As we come together to experience the magic of live performance, let us also celebrate the resilience and creativity of our artistic community. In the face of unprecedented challenges, we have persevered with passion and determination, finding new ways to share our gifts with the world.

I am deeply grateful to our talented musicians, dedicated volunteers, generous sponsors, and loyal patrons for their unwavering support and commitment to the arts. It is through your collective efforts that Festival Mozaic's presentations continue to thrive and inspire generations to come.

This summer marks my 19th season stewarding this incredible organization. As I reflect on auditioning and interviewing twenty years ago, I could have never imagined the incredible performances our amazing musicians would create, but moreover, the relationships and community Alice and I (and now Malcolm) would create.

Thank you for joining us, and may the music fill your hearts with joy and inspiration.

The Movement Arts Collective once again joins forces with Festival Mozaic to lead this family-friendly performance of Prokofiev's beloved Peter and the Wolf in which the narrator tells the story while the orchestra represents the characters with different instruments. This concert is open for all ages and will last under one hour without an intermission.

NOTABLE DINNER

Mendelssohn

CASS | WINERY

MONDAY, JULY 22, 5:30 PM

Cass Winery, Paso Robles

Enjoy a unique musical and culinary experience signature to Festival Mozaic! The evening begins with a wine and appetizer reception. Then join Scott Yoo and the Festival Artists inside Cass Winery's beautiful Barrel Room for an exploration of Mendelssohn's Sextet in D, op. 110. You'll learn about the composer's life, musical influences and techniques, and hear some excerpts of the piece. Afterwards, enjoy a gourmet three-course dinner by Chef Charlie Wayne on the veranda complete with award-winning Cass wines.

INSIGHT: Mendelssohn's sextet for violin, two violas, cello, bass and piano is often overshadowed by his String Octet, which was completed one year after the sextet. Though the sextet shows signs of being a somewhat simpler composition, the brilliant piano part suggests Mendelssohn wanted to show off his own skills at the keyboard.

CHAMBER CONCERT 2

TUESDAY, JULY 23, 4:00 PM

Templeton Performing Arts Center

Festival Mozaic is proud to present its first summer chamber music concert at the Templeton Performing Arts Center. Beethoven's Kakadu Variations for piano trio opens the program, followed by Louise Farrenc's wonderful bass quintet (string quartet plus a bass), and Ruth Crawford Seeger's violin sonata written in 1926. Mendelssohn's sextet finishes the program, which is almost a chamber piano concerto given the virtuosic and dominating part for the piano.

RUTH CRAWFORD SEEGER

Violin Sonata

LOUISE FARRENC

Bass Quintet in E-flat major, op. 38

MENDELSSOHN

Sextet in D, op. 110

Beethoven's Kakadu trio is named after the song used as its theme, "Ich bin der Schneider Kakadu." This translates to "I am the tailor cockatoo," possibly alluding to high hairstyles worn by men and women of the day.

PRE-CONCERT LECTURE: Arrive early for a 3:00 PM lecture on the stage.

MOZART IN THE MISSION

CHAMBER CONCERT 3

WEDNESDAY, JULY 24, 7:30 PM

Mission San Luis Obispo de Tolosa

The annual concert in Mission San Luis Obispo opens with some beautifully resonant pieces by Italian composer Gabrieli for a brass ensemble comprised of Festival Mozaic artists and local musicians. Following this is Russian composer Mikhail Glinka's septet for winds and strings and Ravel's Introduction and Allegro, which showcases the harp. Closing the concert is Mozart's Divertimento from 1772, the same year our Mission was established.

Divertimento in D, K. 131

Did you know? Mozart's Divertimento is scored for not one, not two, but FOUR French horns. It is one of only a few of Mozart's major works that includes four horns (most of his works included just one or two).

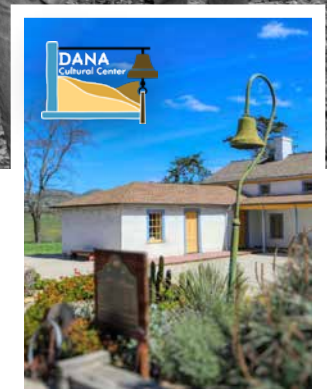

Indulge in culinary creations and Central Coast wines while you mingle with the performers at an exclusive after-party at Luna Red. Limited to 50 guests, this reception is not to be missed!

PRE-CONCERT LECTURE: Arrive early for a 6:30 PM lecture in the sanctuary.
